Ball Team Holds Game at Practice

Class Picnic At Random Play Short Contest: Weak Filling

With the coming of the first good baseball day of the year, the first in a series of interclass game hunts was held at the Coolidge Field. The two teams were chosen from the candidates for the baseball teams. The contest was a close one, and the judges could not decide who was the winner. The next step will be a decision between the two teams.

Crew

(Continued From Page 1)

Keeny distance here at the Charles. The boat is in a strong wind, as some critics claim, but the crew is working hard and keeping up the usual pace. They are the only ones who have been practicing in the boat. The boat this year has a new feature, a double waterbag, which is supposed to increase the performance of the boat. The weather this year is not as good as last year. The boat is made up of the usual crew of six men, but there are some new names on the roster. Captain Guinders back as veterans to the boat.

The Phoenix

Mntch in less than two weeks. As regards the freshmen this year, their outing will be held next Tuesday, April 16, 1935.

The Prize Committee is made up of the group participating in a given activity. The committee members are: Florence W. Bevan, Jr., '35, XVI, Dormitory. The committee is made up of the group participating in a given activity. The committee members are: Florence W. Bevan, Jr., '35, XVI, Dormitory.

The Institute

In this column we endeavor to outline certain unpopular, selected questions. A reporter interviews students of random, to determine the relative importance of the questions.

Ralph T. Zepo, Jr., '35, Denison College. The Institute Committee's action on questions. The survey is conducted in a random sample of the students.

Gilbert C. Metc, '37, H. Dormitory. The results of the Institute Committee's action on questions. The survey is conducted in a random sample of the students.

Hart L. Livingston, '35, XIII, Dormitory. The results of the Institute Committee's action on questions. The survey is conducted in a random sample of the students.

This column endeavors to outline certain unpopular, selected questions. A reporter interviews students of random, to determine the relative importance of the questions.

Gilbert C. Metc, '37, H. Dormitory. The results of the Institute Committee's action on questions. The survey is conducted in a random sample of the students.

Hart L. Livingston, '35, XIII, Dormitory. The results of the Institute Committee's action on questions. The survey is conducted in a random sample of the students.

Golfers Compete For Varsity Club Medal

The Varsity Club Medal is awarded to the player who best performs in an eighteen hole medal tournament. The medal will be awarded to the player who best performs in an eighteen hole medal tournament. The medal will be awarded to the player who best performs in an eighteen hole medal tournament.

The Lounger

(Continued From Page 4)

The Lounger is an independent publication, free from the influence of the administration. The Lounger is an independent publication, free from the influence of the administration. The Lounger is an independent publication, free from the influence of the administration.

Walton Lunch Co.

1060 Boylston Street

Convenient to Frothingham Men's Trust W ALTON'S

1080 Boylston Street