Crew (Continued from Page 1)

form. Captain Al Mann has been moved down from number two to grade the boat for the race, while Bill Elbsty has been moved up to the job. V. W. is to fill in at rower's place at 2.

On the same program as the Compo win, the race will be run between the Harvard, Princeton and Technology Junior Varsity and 150 lb. boats. Last year Technology's crack 150 lb. boat, having just won the Brown Cup race, will be races between the teams. On the same program as the Compo win, the race will be run between the teams. Although the score was 1-0 for the up-state team, 2 of the five points were won on the sixteenth hole when Sadich of Worcester shot a 9 to beat Out. Captain Flood, playing No. 1, had an off day as he dropped his point for the eighteenth hole. Ed Everett, No. 2 also lost his point, and as he and Flood were in the same foursome, they naturally lost the point for both teams.

In the other foursome, however, things were much closer as Herb Goodwin circled the course in a sweet 72, one over par. This won Tech's lone point of the day. Howe Goodwin was in the other foursome, however, things were much closer as Herb Goodwin circled the course in a sweet 72, one over par. This won Tech's lone point of the day.

The M. I. T. Lacrosse team will play the Tech in their first meet of the year tomorrow. Tech men listed for tomorrow's match are: George Gaffney, Elmer Wirtz, Dick Kofod, Bill Bates, John Talboys, Stan Zemansky, Jim Carr, and Larry Smith. Those who will most probably start include: Joe Biddle, George Gaffney, Elmer Wirtz, John Talboys, Stan Zemansky, Jim Carr, and Larry Smith.

The meet with Worcester Tech is the first match of the year for both teams, and not much can be said about the teams. The meet with Worcester Tech is the first match of the year, but not much can be said about the teams.

The first freshmen heavies will also compete against the Tigers and Crimson in the first meet of the year last Wednesday at the Oak Golf Club. Although the score was 1-0 in favor of the up-state team, 2 of the five points were won on the sixteenth hole when Sadich of Worcester shot a 9 to beat Out. Captain Flood, playing No. 1, had an off day as he dropped his point for the eighteenth hole. Ed Everett, No. 2 also lost his point, and as he and Flood were in the same foursome, they naturally lost the point for both teams.

The first freshmen heavies will also compete against the Tigers and Crimson in the first meet of the year last Wednesday at the Oak Golf Club. Although the score was 1-0 in favor of the up-state team, 2 of the five points were won on the sixteenth hole when Sadich of Worcester shot a 9 to beat Out. Captain Flood, playing No. 1, had an off day as he dropped his point for the eighteenth hole. Ed Everett, No. 2 also lost his point, and as he and Flood were in the same foursome, they naturally lost the point for both teams.

The first freshmen heavies will also compete against the Tigers and Crimson in the first meet of the year last Wednesday at the Oak Golf Club. Although the score was 1-0 in favor of the up-state team, 2 of the five points were won on the sixteenth hole when Sadich of Worcester shot a 9 to beat Out. Captain Flood, playing No. 1, had an off day as he dropped his point for the eighteenth hole. Ed Everett, No. 2 also lost his point, and as he and Flood were in the same foursome, they naturally lost the point for both teams.