SPORTS COMMENT

Pleanty of baseball is scheduled for this week for the players at Tech. Three contests are lined up for the Collegians, the independent team. Today they clash with the Boston University Jennys, with other games on the sched-ule for Thursday and Saturday. The interleague league schedule for the week started yesterday with a 7-3 win for the Seniors over the freshmen, and con-tinues with two more games tomorrow and Friday. Then we await Harper's "Streak League", for inter-departmental bottles are being played every morning at 7 o'clock.

It's hard enough to lose your shirt when you are a member of a defeated crew, but when you indulge home with the knowledge that your shoes are in an opponent's possession, we think that taking a little too much advantage. For those of you who are unfamiliar with rowing traditions, it is the custom for the right victorious scull- men to annex the shirts of the members of the vanquished boats. Bob Toomer was among the varsity men who handed over their shirts Saturday, but when he went to look for his shoes they were gone. We wager that Bob will be more careful in the future.

An expected, Antac Kishon was the high scorer in the Bates-Tech meet on Open House Day, but his efforts were not sufficient to keep his team in the running. Stan Johnson rolled up the high individual total for Tech. If the Harvard-coached men continue their good work at Providence on Satur-day, Brown will become Tech's second victim.
