Two Plays Given Today By Drama Option Classes

Love Triangle And Honor Given In Presentations From G. Bernard Shaw

These Are Final Plays of Year

Last of the 22nd Drama Option plays are to be presented today at two o'clock in Room 33-307. A desertion among the cast has been due to the fact that one of the group is an exchange student, that one of the others is a foreign exchange student, and that the third is a graduate student who has not been able to attend the meetings of the class because he is working with an engineer on a research project.

These plays will be given today by G. Bernard Shaw and entitled, "The Fascinating Fandangle." The theme of the first is that of a young woman who has been exposed to amorous advances by two different men, one of whom is a married man. The second is that of a young woman who has been exposed to amorous advances by two different men, one of whom is a married man.

Spring Dance Held Tonight by Dorms

Limit Attendance To 260 Couples
Admission Set At $1.25 For Outsiders

Attendance at tonight's Dormitory Spring Dance is to be held in Walker from 9 to 11, limited to 250 couples, according to the statement by Prof. A. 3. Proctor, '57, chairman of the Dance Committee. At 2:30 same time it was announced that, by popular demand, non-students will be permitted to attend for $1.25. Dorms are paying only a small fraction of a surplus in the last and tax fund.

Their reason for the special admission, says Colonel of Students, is to avoid giving a box party to those bought at the boat.

Tickets are announced. Present as guests are to be Mr. and Mrs. Horace S. Forth, and as financier, Mrs. M. T. Brown, '32, and Mrs. C. B. Brown, '32. The latter is to be President.

The majority of the women of the dorms was lined with curious students.

The first dance, the "Spring Festival," was given at the dorms a few nights ago. Al.1 that could be found, a creaking chair, followed by a sub-

Value of Open House Expenditures Discussed in "The Tech Inquirers"

Today's Question: "Do you think that the effort which will be put into the Open House will pay off to the students, their friends and the Institute?"

Value of Open House Expenditures Discussed in "The Tech Inquirers"

Today's Question: "Do you think that the effort which will be put into the Open House will pay off to the students, their friends and the Institute?"

Value of Open House Expenditures Discussed in "The Tech Inquirers"

Today's Question: "Do you think that the effort which will be put into the Open House will pay off to the students, their friends and the Institute?"

Value of Open House Expenditures Discussed in "The Tech Inquirers"

Today's Question: "Do you think that the effort which will be put into the Open House will pay off to the students, their friends and the Institute?"

Value of Open House Expenditures Discussed in "The Tech Inquirers"

Today's Question: "Do you think that the effort which will be put into the Open House will pay off to the students, their friends and the Institute?"