hiter's enemy. Mr. Villard asserted that "Germany has struck hands with Poland too in order to take the Ukraine from the Soviet Union". A perilous Japanese-German agreement was also suspected, he maintained, in that marriage of German with any race other than the Japanese is forbidden.

In describing the atrocious treatment of the Jews, whom he characterized as the "scapegoates" of the Hitler movement, the grandson of William Lloyd Garrison, himself an outstanding liberal, declared, "I feel my blood in vain to find any evidence to make the Jew the vicious enemy of the state, or of culture, that the Nazis claim them to be."

"It is only a question of time before the Jew will be put into the Ghetto and we shall be back where we were in the Middle Ages," he prophesied.

The meeting was presided over by Hugh T. Smith, the tug-of-war coach, and Mr. Wier announced that he expected to have the support of the average weights would run about 175 pounds of the team. It was announced that since tug-of-war practice will be held from 5:00 to 8:45 each afternoon, it will be possible for commuters to attend the practices and still have sufficient time to catch their trains.

At the close of the meeting, there were about 25 men who signed up for tug-of-war. A survey of the list showed that their average weight would be 175 pounds. There were about 25 men who signed up for tug-of-war. A survey of the list showed that their average weight would be 175 pounds. There were about 25 men who signed up for tug-of-war. A survey of the list showed that their average weight would be 175 pounds.

There were about 25 men who signed up for tug-of-war. A survey of the list showed that their average weight would be 175 pounds. There were about 25 men who signed up for tug-of-war. A survey of the list showed that their average weight would be 175 pounds.