IRISH college year is well under way and the youth of the nation has flooded back to the universities. At Harvard, the average enrollment is more than six and one half thousand. The number is being encouraged in part by the better financial conditions in the country following the Great Depression. The funds of the New Deal's National Youth Administration and the funds of the October 10, 1935. is, that they don't do any work. I George Gershwin's opera. Well is$ .I
