Tech Union Heats Talk By Compton
Explains Accomplishments On National Science Board

In a talk on the "Work of the Executive with the Government," Dr. T. Compton, President of the Institute, told the Tech Union about the accomplishments of the National Science Education Board, of which he is chairman, at a meeting at 7:30 o'clock in the Eastman Lecture Hall, Room 53 East, Monday evenings.

Between sixty and seventy million dollars are spent annually by the government in support of science, according to Dr. Compton. In order to put this money to the best use, the National Science Education Board was formed. At present the money is divided almost equally between the government agencies, the schools, and private industries. Technology Institute is one of the major contributors of this three million dollars.

Dr. Compton was born in the Uniontown, Pennsylvania, and received his B.S. degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

British Italian War is Inevitable Says Naval Architect Professor
Professor George Owen of the Naval Architecture Department, said that Italy is the real aggressor in the war.

"The figures," he said, "are clear and undeniable. Italy has spent over $100 million in preparing for war, and her military budget is over $100 million. The Italian government," he said, "is a war government, and it is obvious that Italy will go to war at any time."
