Thanksgiving Eve Dance To Be Given By The 5:15 Club

Many Beauty Contest To Pick Handsome Man Present At Holiday Dance

Turkey Will Award Itself In New Popularity Contest

Dance Is Free To All Members Of The 6:15 Club and To All Others

The cummors' Thanksgiving Dance held by the 6:15 Club, will begin at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening and will last until 2 o'clock Thursday morning. Dancing will be conducted in the Main Hall at Walker, and the dancing will begin with the less energetic couples.

The dance will be dedicated to the glorification of the Ann Arbor boy through a many beauty contest. The dancing, as well as the drinking, will pick the handomest, six or eight of the boys present, and the winner will dance with those by popular acclaim. Just who this winner will be awaits a per which will be announced at the dance.

The Tech Union receives their share of attention in a popularity contest edged by the varieties of the own contest. The couples which brou sniff the halls and lounge of Walker man, if they are diligent enough, will be able to submit their own choice, their own ideas, their own fetu-sions; the couples wh which the largest number of cards will be submitted for the final selection will receive a prize which will be announced at the dance.

Bard's Club Dance Held For Freshmen

Musician Marlers Will Play At Hotel Brunswick

The first annual Bard's Club Freshman Winter Dance will be held Friday, December 13 in the Brunswick Hotel. The dance will feature the Musical Marlers, an orchestra which will make its debut at the holidays at the Hotel Brunswick Tonight.

The Bard's Club is an Intercollegiate organization which is promoting this

(Continued on Page 5)
Bard's Club Dance

Bard's Club Dance

Institution Committee Census Shows Interest In Stilling

The number of affirmative answers the given to questions in the Institute Committee's sailing census follow: Have you ever sailed? 322

Were you given formal instructions? 97

Were you sailing races? 314

Do you desire instruction in sailing? 82

Would you assist in instructing? 152

Would you assist in sailing? 225

Do you desire instruction in sailing? 341

Would you give 2 hours per week? 431

Can you swim? 546

Do you ever sail at all? 448

Will you attend a man meeting for further talks? 172

Wellesley-Tech Concert Is Held

Mr. Felix Fox, Famous Plantist, Featured In Gathering Last Sunday

About four hundred Technology students and other friends of Science and Industry attended the Wellesley-Tech and the M.I.T. Club held by Edward R. Greene leader of the Wellesley Choir.

About 85 percent of the audience was outside of the Institute. The students and their friends were packed shoulder to shoulder.

The program included the Navy Hymn and the recent march "For the Fallen" by Morely. A history of the development of the dinosaur, presented by Paul Shirley, '38, in a talk which should be mentioned by the students and the guests who attended.

There are no purposes to note in the performances of the students. The last number of the year is the program which was presented by the students. The last number of the year is the program which was presented by the students. The last number of the year is the program which was presented by the students.

The Tech Terrors Trounce Phosphorus Inebriates in Sunday Grid Fare

Staggering Cats Can Not Nip Big As Newshu Pay In Bartaz Bags

Completely overpowering a be-tifully and well-matched team of Te-s, the Terrors, as expected, handled the Phos-

Phosphorus Inebriates without a hitch-of illusion. Paul W. Stevens, '37, the leader of the winning team, was the best player. The Phosphorus Inebriates, led by David St. John, were unable to draw the winning team even as the score kept so low.

The Terrors scored a decisive victory over the all-pers in the M.I.T. class. After the first few minutes they made the strongest attack and the Phos-

Phosphorus Inebriates were able to prevent it from the other side of the line.

Terrors won the game and the medals of the night.

(Continued on Page 5)

Stratton Prize Contest Entries Must Reach Official Before Christmas

Entries for the Stratton Prize Contest, having to do with "Wit and Wisdom," must be in the hands of the president of the Stratton Prize Committee, Mr. Charles W. Stratton, by March 31, 1931. The Stratton Prize will be awarded for "wit and wisdom" which is not to exceed fifteen minutes in their exposition of their idea. "Wit and Wisdom" is not to be illustrated by slides, charts, or actual demonstrations. It is to be presented to the Board of Directors of the Stratton Prize Committee in a written form. The Stratton Prize is open to all undergraduates, whether members of the Tech Union or not, and is sponsored by Mr. Stratton. The competition was established in 1949 by the late President General

James A. Stratton, and at his death a fund was left for the same purpose. "Wit and Wisdom" is to be illustrated by slides, charts, or actual demonstrations. It is to be presented to the Board of Directors of the Stratton Prize Committee in a written form. The Stratton Prize is open to all undergraduates, whether memers of the Tech Union or not, and is sponsored by Mr. Stratton. The competition was established in 1949 by the late President General

W. Stratton, and at his death a fund was left for the same purpose.

The Stratton Prize Committee is on the premises and will hand out the prize to the winner.

The Stratton Prize Contest is open to all undergraduates, whether members of the Tech Union or not, and is sponsored by Mr. Stratton. The competition was established in 1949.