The Quadrangle Club Holds Two Meetings To Initiate New Men

Josephine - Freshman Society Also Revives System Of Elections

Two meetings of the Quadrangle Club held recently in the main hall of the university, have been held in the past few months. A new project of the Alpha Epsilon fraternity house on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, and the second was held at the Phi Gamma Delta house on Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Thirteen members are now in residence at the fraternity house, and the number of new members is expected to increase in the near future.

The purpose of the club is to allow the fraternity men to display their democratic tendencies. The club is composed of the following members: William Leucht, '36, president; Joseph L. Seaver, '36, vice-president; Robert L. Hines, '36, secretary; and Robert J. Krenn, '36, treasurer.

The club meets on the last Tuesday of each month at 8 o'clock, and all members are expected to attend.

The club has organized several groups interested in using the facilities of the fraternity house for social and cultural activities.

Sailing Certificates Planned To Classify Ambitious Yachtsmen

Blanks Have Been Sent To Those Already Registered For Instruction

To make the sailing dinghies easily and promptly available to the students, the M.I.T. Naval Association recommends that sailing certificates be obtained for classification purposes.

The certificates have been mailed to students who have indicated their interest in sailing. Any student who does not receive one may obtain it by applying to the chairman of the Naval Association, who will forward it to the registrar. The certificates will be available to students who have not yet registered.
