should be presented to a reviewer who will sign off qualifications. These reviewers are Dean William Kemerer, School of Architecture; Professor William T. Hall, Room 2-241; John T. Morton, Room 8-408; George Owen, Room 3-113; George E. Brown, Room 1-241, and C. P. Taylor, Room 28-90. After checking by the reviewer, the certificate will be left with the Chief Examiner in Room 1-321. Identification cards allowing the use of the dinghies will be issued at nautical association headquarters after February 1.

Students who have had no sailing experience should complete the requirements of the swimming certificate, and present it with the sailing certificate to Robert W. Voss, Room 1-241, who will arrange to have credits entered as rapidly as they are accumulated in shore school and subsequent sailing practice. After completion of shore school and sailing lectures students in this group will be given identification cards enabling them to use the dinghies with instructors.

Students who cannot swim may arrange lessons with the instructors in the Cambridge or Boston Y.M.C.A. in order that they may be ready to take advantage of sailing in March.

Kidnap Victim Taken For Crazy By Police

Lawrence Steinhardt, '37, Left At Woburn Sunday Night

Kidnappers again displayed their hand in a Dormitory escapade last Sunday night, January 12. Lawrence R. Steinhart, '37, was the embarrassed victim of the plot.

Captured on his way out for a midnight snack, he was taken half to the Dormitories and all his hair was shaved off, except for a scalp-lock. Thus his pants were taken off, and he was draped in a blanket.

The plotters left their victim in Woburn, and notified the police that a wild Indian was running around. Steinhardt was found by the police, and taken to headquarters for questioning.

After he succeeded in convincing them that he was not crazy, and had proved his identity, the police brought him back to the Dormitories.

New Play Chosen For Dramashop Production

Small Drama Given By Members After Meeting

"Inspector General", a Russian farce, was chosen as this year's play at the business meeting of Dramashop, January 8, in the Rogers Building.

The meeting, the first that the new members who have been added, was preceded by a dinner in a nearby coffee shop, after the meeting a one-act play was given for the entertainment of the members under the direction of David L. Morrow, '37.

The play chosen for the April production was written by Ibsen, a Norwegian, and has been translated into a four-act play in English. Two other plays were seriously considered, one a mystery-comedy, and the other a Russian tragedy. The play reading committee consisted of the following: Ralph D. Merrington, Jr., '37, Vernon G. Lipsett, '36, Arthur E. Wells, Jr., '36; John P. Allen, '36; and Ruth G. Rafferty, '36.

The new members of Dramashop were voted upon before Christmas after they had tried out for the club by reading parts, if they were going out for acting, and by taking a written examination if they were interested in the managing end of the production. The officers of the club are: President Frederick R. Claffee, '37; and Secretary-Treasurer Edgar B. Talbott, '37.

In a poll held at Princeton University, whiskey was voted the favorite beverage, receiving 84 ballots as against 51 for milk.

HALF & HALF MAKES ONE SWELL SMOKE!

What makes a pipe chummy? Half & Half... and how! Cool as the news: "We've got a flat tire!" Sweet as the sign: "Garage just ahead." Fragrant, full-bodied tobacco that won't bite the tongue.
