Kent Bartlett's Band Provides Music For 600 at Senior Dance
Class Banners Decorate Walls; Dr. and Mrs. Compton Among Guests
Over 350 couples danced on Friday night to the music of Kent Bartlett and his orchestra at the Senior Dance, which was held from 10 until 2 o'clock in the Main Hall of Walker.
A gay setting for the occasion was provided by the walls of the Hall, which were hung with a complete collection of class banners secured by the Alumni Association from all the classes from 1865 through 1935. Sixteen prominent members of the Junior class acted for the evening. The patrons and patronesses for the affair were: Dr. and Mrs. Karl T. Coghlan, Dr. and Mrs. Warner Bush, Treasurer and Mrs. Horace A. Ford, Dean Harold E. Lobdell and his mother, Professor and Mrs. Leicester F. Hamilton, Professor and Mrs. James R. Jack, and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Nalle.
The committee in charge of the dance was composed of the following members of the Class of 1890: Scott C. Borthorst, chairman; Robert E. Warden, William W. Garch, Robert S. Gillette, and Richard S. DeWalt.

"A Jury is a group of twelve people of average ignorance," Prof. Symons once said. A group of fifty years old who had a personal estate of twelve thousand dollars—Life.
