be encountered and upon which rest the success of the whole undertaking.

Fishing, legacies and such, as we know them in relation to the modern school, are anachronisms which may well disappear if we overthrow the desire for further schooling, school classes and lectures. If the adult is to be educated, a method must be found which is based upon the accepted conception of a school as to set it apart from the measure of an average student, a subject of the prescribed pill is what is needed but it

PROPOSED POINTS

FOR FIELD DAY

AIR distribution of points allotted to Field Day points has been a most question of continuity since the ritual was first inaugurated back in 1901. At that time, a thirty-nine years that the lower class struggle has taken place, freshmen have found victory with relative only since then, and while there are those who would advance the theory that twenty percent of wins is the desired end are most desirable. And it
