...ing the entire student body, and it will support any general ruling of the Institute Committee to modify or abolish kidnapping."

Student sentiment against kidnapping was aroused last week when the persons responsible for the kidnapping and hold-up of Lawrence E. Hubbard, '27, admitted in a letter to the Tech that their deed had been carefully planned and executed and that it was a revenge measure because of the "ungentlemanly conduct" of the victim at "ball dance."

John C. Austin, president of the Senior class issued a statement denouncing the "injudicious methods" of the kidnappers and intimating that the Institute Committee might take some action to prevent recurrence of the incident.
