I. F. C. Dance
(Continued from Page 2)

Sophomore Wins Edgeworth Contest

Black and gold is the theme of the Daily Mirror was followed at the dance.

The Sophomore class elected Mil- lard Mosehaur, '37, Publicity; Charles Earl B. Wilkinson, '39, Lighting; Ed- ward E. Fish, alternate, and Harold Chestnut and David G. Froehle, members of the Institute Committee, with William F. Pulver and Richard S. Leghorn, alternates. William R. Hodgson was elected alternate president.

Senior Week activities begin with the Senior Banquet on Friday, June 5, followed by an all-request Pops concert in Symphony Hall on Saturday, June 6. The entire first floor of the dormitories, tables were also re- served for both their graduate and undergraduate members and guests. Other fraternity had one or more tables reserved. In view of cooperation received from the Dormitories, tables were also re- served for both their graduate and undergraduate members and guests.

The Sophomore class elected Mil- lard Mosehaur, '37, Publicity; Charles Earl B. Wilkinson, '39, Lighting; Edward E. Fish, alternate, and Harold Chestnut and David G. Froehle, members of the Institute Committee, with William F. Pulver and Richard S. Leghorn, alternates. William R. Hodgson was elected alternate president.

Senior Week activities begin with the Senior Banquet on Friday, June 5, followed by an all-request Pops concert in Symphony Hall on Saturday, June 6. The entire first floor of the dormitories, tables were also re- served for both their graduate and undergraduate members and guests. Other fraternity had one or more tables reserved. In view of cooperation received from the Dormitories, tables were also re- served for both their graduate and undergraduate members and guests.