Hayden Wins Dorm Hard-Ball Honors

Scores First Baseball Championship By Defeating Goodell 4 to 1

Hayden yesterday morning scored an upset when it was the hard-hitting tournament from Goodell on the Coop Field. The game was close until the last inning when the victory gained a narrow margin. The contest only lasted five innings due to the necessity of going to nine men's league.

The first tally sacred in the second inning when Lippitt hit a three bagger after Baron singled and Goodell walked. Goodell scored in the four inning when Knight stole home. This was the only run for the losers. Bull put the game on ice when he drove out a three bagger with two men on. Lipo pitched for the victors while Knight tossed for Goodell. These two men starred for their teams.

The final score was 4 to 1. The outcome might have been different if Meek's long hit had been a few inches on the other side of the foul line in the fourth when two men were on base.

Goodell: Hunsicker, Knight, Rose, Hackett, Murphy, Johnson, Sheldon, Goody, and Vincent.

Henry Gudens, Capt. Stan Johnson, George Hailey, George Ray, 5-11; Dave McClellan, 1; Al Faizi, 2; Total 13 6-11.

Faculty Club Report

Summarizes Season's Important Happenings

Professors Harrison, Hamilton, Russell, and Mr. Nalle

Elected Officers

In a report recently issued by the secretary of the M. I. T. Faculty Club for the academic year of 1935-1936, a summary of the year's major events was given. Professor George H. Mar- tion was elected president at the election meeting on May 17, 1935, and Professor George E. Basset was elected vice-president. The club chose Professor Leitner F. Hamilton as treasurer and Mr. John, M. Nalle as secretary. In addition Professors Bartlett, Fren-dell and Eiler were elected to the Ex- ecutive Committee.

A Faculty Club Council was also appointed to cooperate with the Ex- ecutive Committee in the arrangement of the programs for the year and for the selection of speakers. Those who consented to work on the committee were Professors Frederick J. Adams, Henry E. Rossell, Lewis A. Slakchtt, and George W. Swift, Mr. Harold A. Freeman, Mr. Michael F. Koch, Mr. Randall E. Robertson, and Mr. Carroll L. Wilson also volunteered.

Eight luncheon meetings were held by the club during the year. The speakers and their topics were as follows: October 24, 1935, Professor Theodore Smith—"The League of Nations at Crises" November 20, 1935, Mr. J. G. Trump—"Recent Scientific Developments in Russia" December 8, 1935, Hon. Arthur T. Wilson—"American Foreign Policies and Conditions," January 22, 1936, Dr. E. A. Eastman—"The Spiritual Evolution of Man in Japan," February 14, 1936, Hon. Ler- ester Scalabrin—"States Governmental Problems," March 14, 1936, Dr. Aston d'Heaux—"International Economic Relations and Business Review," April 6, 1936, Mr. Gen. Perc Gomez—"Military Aspects of the Day," May 20, 1936, Rev. C. Leslie Glenn—"Cuartares Paideia between Religion and Education."

The Executive Committee decided to reduce the debt for members of the staff below faculty grade to $1.00 per year, in an effort to bring more of the young staff members into the Faculty Club.
