THE TECH
Inquires

This column endeavors to stimulate interest in questions of student life. Persons are always at rest, and it is answered by a reporter who has no knowledge of the questions for which they are eagerly awaiting. Open Forum comments on this column are always welcomed.

This week, the reporter greeted the Freshman class with the following query: “When do I have to attend must test?”

Albert B. Leys, Trinity, N. C.

The reason I came to M. I. T. is so that I shall take a course in the engineering field, which is one of my interests, and that I may be able to the best of my ability to obtain a useful education. Knowledge, my foremost desire, is a method of saving money, and a method of saving money, I should say, is also the basis of a method of saving money. So if I have any success in saving money, it is because I have a method of saving money.

To a Freshman

Dear Photo

Harold R. Seykota, Sophomore class president, being thrown into Lake Massapoag by freshmen in traditional ceremony. The arrow shows Seykota.

The Freshman.

Who wanders here and there
By loudly clapping Minsky’s witches?

By the Coop’s long practiced stealth?

Who’s robbed of all his hard earned wealth

For your military uniform.

By Tubby Rogers’ ancient lore?

At the Freshman.

The Freshman.

Who helps to make P. Minsky’s crocks

P. Minsky’s crocks?

Who helps to make his old, hard earned

Who helps to make his old, hard earned wealth
