Innovation Banned By The Institute Committee Men

Society of Military Engineers was tabbed until further notice.

Here Men Must Show Interest
Before The Society Can Be Recognized

The "Shooting of the Beaver," a Sophomore-Freshman activity to raise money which was outlawed last year, was disapproved by the Institute Committee at its meeting held last night. Reasons for the disapproval were that in a similar plan several years ago, one person was killed and several were severely injured.

The disputed plan was to have a covered wooden structure a beaver to be shot at and pointed at the interval at intervals at the intervals at that place. The class which had it in its possession the longest time during that time. The class which had it in its possession the longest time during that time. The class which had it in its possession the longest time during that time.

A motion to accept the constitution of the society of Military Engineers was taken. In a discussion of the matter, William B. Burnett, '27, and George Wemple, '27, thought that the new society was no need of such a society at this time. In a discussion of the society, George Wemple, '27, and Harold Seykota, '91 and C. N. D. C. Wemple, '37, thought that several years ago, one person was killed and several were severely injured.

Catholic Club Holds First Day of Race

The social season at Technology will be inaugurated on next Monday, October 6th, when the Tech Catholic Club will hold an Antiques Dance in Walker Memorial.

Sophomores, Juniors and seniors will furnish music. The program will include a feature dance of the Sophomore class.

Chasina for the field day sports will be present to supervise the beginning of activities, and announce the start of practice sessions.

Projects for those students who wish to participate in the activities are advised by Mr. J. M. Nall, the Placement Officer, to have their pictures taken on Monday.

Preparing for the first practice day, all teams will have made arrangements to meet the coach or manager of their sport.

The Manager of Field Day will be present to explain the fundamentals governing the conduct of Field Day.

Special emphasis is placed upon the ratings of the All-Tech Sophomore, and all activities, and prohibiting kidnapping.

For all those who wish to play on any of the class teams, it is important that they make arrangements to complete their physical examination as soon as possible.

The Tech To Conduct Poll
Of Institute Preferences
In Presidential Elections

Three Days Set Aside
For Voting Here This Month

Committers, Dorsitories, And Finances As Each Have Day

Students Gave Hoover Majority
In 1932 Poll Conducted

Technology sentiment in the approaching presidential election will be sounded in an all-inclusive straw vote to be conducted by The Tech this month.

Dormitory, fraternity and committer students will be polled on separate days. In addition, voters will be classified according to courses and classes. Members of the faculty will also be polled.

In 1932 The Tech conducted a poll in which the students favored Herbert Hoover by a large margin, with New-roosevelt receiving only 348 votes.

Franklin Roosevelt was re-elected by a small majority of one vote.

Only 24 percent of the students voted for President Roosevelt.

The results of this poll will be published in The Tech on October 26th, Friday, morning, along with a complete tabulation of the polls for the week.

The national election will be held Tuesday, November 3rd.
