production with Timmons, an agreement with the Drama Club, and celebration of the tenth anniversary of the organization were discussed. It was announced that favorable response had been obtained to a form letter sent out to members of the alumni and alumnae asking their response had been obtained to a form letter sent out to members of the alumni and alumnae asking their participation in the Drama Club's financial support of the organization.

The tech smoker was started by a small group of students in 1925 under the direction of Professor Dean M. Puller who had continued as the coach. The first play presented was "The Hairy Ape" by O'Neill and since then the club has presented two full length plays each year. Typical of the plays have been "Rilla McClain," "George Dandel," "Mr. Anti-Christ," "Noon at the Palace," and "㋑ SATIS
