CALENDAR

Friday, October 9, 1936
9:00—Catholic Club Dance, Main Hall, Walker.

Tuesday, October 13, 1936
4:00-5:00—Dramatics cast tryouts, room 2-105.
9:00—First Glee Club rehearsal and tryout, room 2-309.

Thursday, October 15, 1936
5:00—First Orchestra Practice and tryout, room 2-306.

Soph Rally
(Continued from Page 1)

daily under way.
The meeting was presided over by Harold E. Saykota, President of the Sophomore Class, who introduced the speakers and made a short speech.
The attendance, although small compared with the Sophomore Rally of the year before, was good. Attendance at the Freshman meeting was compulsory.
First speaker was Mr. Paul C.
Balsen of the English Department, who spoke and made a short speech.
Harold R. Seykota, President of the club, was followed on the speakers platform by Richard K. West, the following articles may also
be secured there:
1 shaving brush, 2 baseball mats, 1 pair black and gray tennis shoes, 1 pair blue pajama trousers, 3 pair blue warmers sweater, 1 suspender, 1 towel
orange borders), 1 dark blue bathing suit (tors), and 1 light blue bathing
suit,

Lost At Freshman Camp

Any freshman who finds that he has lost his pink toothbrush, may collect it at the T. C. A. of-flce, where the articles left at Freshman Camp are being kept.
The following articles may also
be secured there:
1 shaving brush, 2 baseball
mats, 1 pair black and gray tennis shoes, 1 pair blue pajama
trousers, 3 pair blue warmers
sweater, 1 suspender, 1 towel
orange bor-
ders), 1 dark blue bathing suit (tors), and 1 light blue bathing
suit,

Day. Mr. Eaton was followed on the speaking platform by Richard K. West, who cautioned his audience that they should show an improvement in Field Day. Mr. Eaton was followed on the speaking platform by Richard K. West,
who cautioned his audience that
they should show an improvement in
Field Day. Mr. Eaton was followed on the
speaking platform by Richard K. West,
who cautioned his audience that
they should show an improvement in
Field Day. Mr. Eaton was followed on the
speaking platform by Richard K. West,
who cautioned his audience that
they should show an improvement in Field Day.