New Solution Of Gym-Auditorium Dispute Offered

Need Of Both Projects Cited By Dr. Compton At Tech Union Meeting

A new note was introduced into the Gym-Auditorium battle at the Tech Union's meeting last Wednesday evening when considerable sentiments were displayed over the necessity for both a building for sports and an auditorium. Dr. Compton introduced this note in his speech, balancing the address of Professor Greene, for the gym and auditorium question.

The following men have been re-elected to the committee: Raymond H. Cleary, A. Arthur Hislop, A. Walter Hislop, C. M. W. Bollinger, and H. R. W. Cook.

The committee will make its report at the meeting of the Alumni Council, and recommendations will then be presented to the student faculty committee and the student union.

The following men have been re-elected to the committee: Raymond H. Cleary, A. Arthur Hislop, A. Walter Hislop, C. M. W. Bollinger, and H. R. W. Cook.

The committee will make its report at the meeting of the Alumni Council, and recommendations will then be presented to the student faculty committee and the student union.

The following men have been re-elected to the committee: Raymond H. Cleary, A. Arthur Hislop, A. Walter Hislop, C. M. W. Bollinger, and H. R. W. Cook.

The committee will make its report at the meeting of the Alumni Council, and recommendations will then be presented to the student faculty committee and the student union.

The following men have been re-elected to the committee: Raymond H. Cleary, A. Arthur Hislop, A. Walter Hislop, C. M. W. Bollinger, and H. R. W. Cook.

The committee will make its report at the meeting of the Alumni Council, and recommendations will then be presented to the student faculty committee and the student union.

The following men have been re-elected to the committee: Raymond H. Cleary, A. Arthur Hislop, A. Walter Hislop, C. M. W. Bollinger, and H. R. W. Cook.

The committee will make its report at the meeting of the Alumni Council, and recommendations will then be presented to the student faculty committee and the student union.