America's Future Tech Union Topic For Fiery Debate
Professor Tucker; Alfred Lewis Take Sides In Technological Tilt
Meeting Comes On Wednesday
Alfred Baker Lewis, Socialistic candidate for Governor in the recent election, and Ronald S. Tucker of the department of Sociology will discuss the subject "What Way-Socialism? Capitalism?" at a meeting of Tech Union, on Wednesday, November 18th in Room 3.519.

The meeting which will be open to members only will commence at eight o'clock. Following the talk by Mr. Lewis and Professor Tucker, there will be an informal discussion of their subject from the floor.

The next meeting which will sponsor this meeting was instituted in 1914 through the efforts of Mr. Theodore Smith of the English Department. It is called "Social Political" and "Political Social" awareness is borne out in the conduct of its meetings at which it is possible to hear all points of view and to compare them.

The topics for discussion at the bi-weekly meetings are selected by a planning committee, composed of John J. Walz, '28; Leonard A. Atwater, '27; and Ralph D. Freeman, '19. The planning committee also issues a statement on the planning committee, now (Continued on Page 4) (Tech)
