THE TECH

MIND AND BODY

PSYCHIATRIC DEPARTMENT

W hile the troubles of the Medical Department may eventually be enlarged to include another department, in his report Dr. George W. Morse, Medical Director, says, "As soon as conditions warrant, it is my hope that the Department may enlarge its scope by adding a Psychiatric and Dental Department. . . . This has been provisionally planned and is awaiting action. . . . I believe that the physical and mental well being of the men will be cared for, but the mental and psychiatric phase of work has not been developed as it should be." The custom of wearing freshmen ties has become a beneficial practice for everyone concerned, especially strange, as it may seem, for the freshmen themselves. They enter Technology for the first time, they are practically total strangers. The regulation tie which they wear announces to other freshmen the presence of kindred souls.

The upperclassmen the wearing of the official cravat, as well as introducing the new men of the Institute, serves as an assurance that some younger man possesses the proper school spirit, and is shown in working on the Technology campus, but which is, nevertheless, a desirable factor in setting up social contacts and life-long friendships among the students. None of the freshmen who have the "uncanny gift of knowing" the horses are going to do MODERN AND SCOLLAY: "Carnival in Flan- The common or "Craig's Wife" from the Pullitzer novel of George Kelly, HE MAN picture. Co-feature is "Craig's Wife" from you that way, you may label a Ile picture.

The weather has turned crisp and snappy—football in the air—that's the sign to step into this plain old "American" shoe. It's literally, yet perfectly adapted for city wear. The plush lining and cushioned leather will stand the gaff in all kinds of weather and conditions of men's shoes. Better get into a pair today—you'll like them.

STREET FLOOR—STORE FOR MEN

OPEN FORUM

November 11, 1936

 недостаточность и ощущение неполноценности, которые характеризуются статус-проблемы с адаптацией в новой среде. Одним из факторов, способствующих этим проблемам, является неразвитость социальных навыков и навыков взаимодействия с окружающими, которые являются важными для адаптации в новой среде. Важно обратить внимание на необходимость развития этих навыков у студентов и предоставить им необходимые ресурсы для их развития.

REVIEWS AND PREVIEWS

M ETHOPOLITAN—Who are the are creating card verses are the long-handed poets of today according to the number of people who nailed their verses to the fence. It was not unusual for the street corner to look like a bulletin board. There was a ORMEHEM—"Theodore God" Wild" sounds to us like a lovably at- tracted to a wordy, dry, but it is clearly a better comedy with Irwin Dunn and Melvyn Douglas. Cerns a man shy female—yes there are men—write a sensational novel and then I try to sell it for three days and no one has said

THE "MJOR" BY STETSON

$1250

The weather has turned crisp and snappy—football in the air—that's the sign to step into this plain old "American" shoe. It's literally, yet perfectly adapted for city wear. The plush lining and cushioned leather will stand the gaff in all kinds of weather and conditions of men's shoes. Better get into a pair today—you'll like them.

STREET FLOOR—STORE FOR MEN