had pierced a window and we immediately stopped shooting." Discovered in the act of shooting the pellets, the freshmen stated, they had pierced a window and we immediately stopped shooting.

"This was on Tuesday night (January 5) at about eight o'clock," the men explained. "Prory afternoons we were called before Professor Rathton, chairman of the Dormitory Board, and told that we were guilty of intentional disorderly conduct, and that our leases at the dormitories would be terminated."

"We admit that we are in the wrong," Force said, "but inside the recent vandalism occurring in the dorm the offense does appear to be more grievous."

"We do not wish the story which appeared in the Boston Daily to be accepted at face value. Show it has appeared we have noticed that we are being held responsible for more than we do

The men have been informed that they will receive a bill for damages, and we admit the responsibility.
