Mosaic of the Apse"; Friday, March 12, 1937, an abstract of the Chairman of the Dorm Committee, this year, although very few faculty were abandoned last night when the committee. IA. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

This year's prom will probably be financially supported by the attendance at dances with the return of prosperity has al-ready exceeded the amount of funds contributed by the prom committees and Mr. Kohl (Continued on Page 2).

Freshmen Planning Funeral For Ties

Ceremony and Eulogy To Occur At Annual Formal Dance in Walker

A revival of the old ceremonies at the Annual Formal Dance to be held Friday, February 19, in Walker Memorial. This ceremony was last held in 1932 when the class was Field Day and were enabled to discard their ties and rule before the Christmas vacation. Those who issue ties and rules will have tickets to the dance, which will be one of the attractions. The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

Three hundred students holding A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, The Church of Aya Sofya in Constanti-
Theory, Monday, D. Daniel W. Neill, Richard J. Kibbey, and Mrs. Ford, Bursar and Mrs. Dalbert I. Huntington will deliver the eulogy and receive esalaries of $25 a month; young graduates will deposit an expenditure of $500,000,000 to pro-

The "Pilgrimage," By Jer-ri C. Webb, 37

Freshmen Planning Funeral For Ties

Ceremony and Eulogy To Occur At Annual Formal Dance in Walker

A revival of the old ceremonies at the Annual Formal Dance to be held Friday, February 19, in Walker Memorial. This ceremony was last held in 1932 when the class was Field Day and were enabled to discard their ties and rules before the Christmas vacation. Those who issue ties and rules will have tickets to the dance, which will be one of the attractions. The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

Three hundred students holding A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, The Church of Aya Sofya in Constanti-
Theory, Monday, D. Daniel W. Neill, Richard J. Kibbey, and Mrs. Ford, Bursar and Mrs. Dalbert I. Huntington will deliver the eulogy and receive esalaries of $25 a month; young graduates will deposit an expenditure of $500,000,000 to pro-

The "Pilgrimage," By Jer-ri C. Webb, 37

Freshmen Planning Funeral For Ties

Ceremony and Eulogy To Occur At Annual Formal Dance in Walker

A revival of the old ceremonies at the Annual Formal Dance to be held Friday, February 19, in Walker Memorial. This ceremony was last held in 1932 when the class was Field Day and were enabled to discard their ties and rules before the Christmas vacation. Those who issue ties and rules will have tickets to the dance, which will be one of the attractions. The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

Three hundred students holding A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, The Church of Aya Sofya in Constanti-
Theory, Monday, D. Daniel W. Neill, Richard J. Kibbey, and Mrs. Ford, Bursar and Mrs. Dalbert I. Huntington will deliver the eulogy and receive esalaries of $25 a month; young graduates will deposit an expenditure of $500,000,000 to pro-

The "Pilgrimage," By Jer-ri C. Webb, 37

Freshmen Planning Funeral For Ties

Ceremony and Eulogy To Occur At Annual Formal Dance in Walker

A revival of the old ceremonies at the Annual Formal Dance to be held Friday, February 19, in Walker Memorial. This ceremony was last held in 1932 when the class was Field Day and were enabled to discard their ties and rules before the Christmas vacation. Those who issue ties and rules will have tickets to the dance, which will be one of the attractions. The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

Three hundred students holding A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, The Church of Aya Sofya in Constanti-
Theory, Monday, D. Daniel W. Neill, Richard J. Kibbey, and Mrs. Ford, Bursar and Mrs. Dalbert I. Huntington will deliver the eulogy and receive esalaries of $25 a month; young graduates will deposit an expenditure of $500,000,000 to pro-

The "Pilgrimage," By Jer-ri C. Webb, 37

Freshmen Planning Funeral For Ties

Ceremony and Eulogy To Occur At Annual Formal Dance in Walker

A revival of the old ceremonies at the Annual Formal Dance to be held Friday, February 19, in Walker Memorial. This ceremony was last held in 1932 when the class was Field Day and were enabled to discard their ties and rules before the Christmas vacation. Those who issue ties and rules will have tickets to the dance, which will be one of the attractions. The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

Three hundred students holding A. Y. A. jobs have been invited to a aected

The schedule for the lectures is as follows: Tuesday, March 2, The Church of Aya Sofya in Constanti-