THE TECH

Reviews and Previews

PLUMMOUTH - A George Abbott production "Rat on the Roof" opens Monday, February 15, for a limited enactment. Malonee will be given the opening Thursday and Saturday.

The authors, John Meehan, J., and Fred F. Kinkshoff who are alumni of Virginia Military Institute, have cre-ted a stage version of life at V. M. I.,
and calling it "Brother Rat" after the designation of the platoons. The plot is a story of a student's progress and compares from the time when he first entered as an awkward plebe undergraduated as grown and gravely
senior. The plot is their first experience at playwriting but George Abbott who has produced "Men in the Street" and "Boy Meets Girl" saw merit in it after it had been rejected
thirty-two times.

The cast is unusual in that it is composed almost entirely of new faces in the dramatic field. Nevertheless,
New York critics have acclaimed the
play a comedy hit.

STATES AND ORPHEUM- Opening
today with two fine runs featuring Loren's State and Orpheum are preparing "Beloved Enemy," starring Merna Oberon and Brian Aherne, and
"Women of Glamour," with Virginia
Bruce and Myrna Loy. The story concerns the leader of the Irish Eastern Front and revolve and the devotion of a man who has even though such a man has in his days. A daughter of M. P, is spoken to the cause of the rebels Jerome
Cowen, star of "Boy Meets Girl" is also included in the cast.

FUNE ARTS- "Yellow Daisy" continues through Tuesday. The film is the amazing story of the Climax-Heads Central Asia Expedition from Syria to Peking, China, over the faming trail followed by Maro. Fene.
Short Subjects include one of the ever satisfying Walt Disney shorts, "The March of Time" and the latest newspaper.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist
Falmouth, Newbury and 1st Sts.
Sunday School 10:15
Morning Service 11:00
Evening Service 7:00

JAMES B. HARRISON
Treasurer

LALIME & PARTIDGE, INC.
Boston

"I'DRATHER BE A WIDOWER" IF I WANTED TO
"BE WIDOWED"

KEARNEY 2760
1235 Boylston Street

High Quality

RevieWs and previews

No new releases

PLUMMOUTH- A George Abbott production "Rat on the Roof" opens Monday, February 15, for a limited enactment. Malonee will be given the opening Thursday and Saturday.

The authors, John Meehan, J., and
Fred F. Kinkshoff who are alumni of Virginia Military Institute, have cre-
ted a stage version of life at V. M. I.,
and calling it "Brother Rat" after the designation of the platoons. The plot
is a story of a student's progress and
compares from the time when he first
entered as an awkward plebe un-
dergraduated as grown and gravely
senior. The plot is their first experience at playwriting but George Abbott who has produced "Men in
the Street" and "Boy Meets Girl" saw
merit in it after it had been rejected
thirty-two times.

The cast is unusual in that it is
composed almost entirely of new faces
in the dramatic field. Nevertheless,
New York critics have acclaimed the
play a comedy hit.

STATES AND ORPHEUM- Opening
today with two fine runs featuring
Loren's State and Orpheum are preparing "Beloved Enemy," starring Merna Oberon and Brian Aherne, and
"Women of Glamour," with Virginia
Bruce and Myrna Loy. The story concerns the leader of the Irish Eastern Front and revolve and the devotion of a
man who has even though such a man has in his days. A daughter of M. P, is
spoken to the cause of the rebels Jerome
Cowen, star of "Boy Meets Girl" is also
included in the cast.

FUNE ARTS- "Yellow Daisy" continues through Tuesday. The film is
the amazing story of the Climax-
Heads Central Asia Expedition from
Syria to Peking, China, over the fam-
ing trail followed by Maro. Fene.
Short Subjects include one of the ever
satisfying Walt Disney shorts, "The March of Time" and the latest newspaper.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist
Falmouth, Newbury and 1st Sts.
Sunday School 10:15
Morning Service 11:00
Evening Service 7:00

JAMES B. HARRISON
Treasurer

LALIME & PARTIDGE, INC.
Boston

"I'DRATHER BE A WIDOWER" IF I WANTED TO
"BE WIDOWED"