Dormitory Dance Held In Walker
Compton and Rogers Featured As Speakers of Evening
About 200 couples attended the dormitory dance held last Friday evening in Walker. After listening to After-Dinner speeches by William Compton and Professor Robert E. Hamby, the orchestra played the music of Johnny Hamby and his orchestra.

President Compton, in discussing the various standards of the gunsmiths, engineers, etc., said that if the boys were to take up the subject of the gunsmiths, engineers, etc., they would be very well informed.

Dormitory dances, it was also noted, are served by the Military Institute and desire further information from the Course Council.

Dramashop to hold try-outs for membership. The tryouts will be held from 4 to 6 in Room 2190. Candidates will be asked to read a one-act play entitled "The Family of the Master Mason." Those parts will be assigned by the committee, after they have explained the plot of the play. Candidates for the parts will be asked to read for the part.
