Strengthened Institute Squad Plays In Hangar Gym Tonight

The Institute hoopers are getting their noses again for battle tonight and with a more cheerful outlook. They will meet a veteran Vermont squad tonight in the Hangar gym at 8:00.

Bally out of practice, the M. T. M. men lost their last game to Clark this week, but since then they have had a chance to put in some time on intensive workouts, and have developed some team plays.

The Vermont team is a veteran, on exhibition, but lacks reserves. It has had a fairly good record to date this season, winning four games and losing four. They have averaged 34.5 points per game against 38.3 for their opponents.

Classes Will Clash
On Track Tomorrow!

A dual track meet between the combined classes of '39 and '37 and the combined classes of '38 and '39 is a featured event on the Track program. The meet will take place at three-thirty tomorrow afternoon on the outdoor track between the hockey and tennis courts. A band concert will be held a week from tomorrow at the same place, same time.

Institute Men Hold 24-1 Lead For Two Periods, Then Bow To Huskies

Show Unusually Good Teamwork

The Northeastern team for almost two-thirds of the game before succumbing to a relentless Husky onslaught which nettled the red and black lions 12 to 4 victory.

Within ten minutes of the first period Cohen and Harbor had scored two goals for Tech, while Bialek had scored two for the Huskies. The Institute Pucksters Tuesday evening at 8:00.

Eight Men Make Trip To N. Y.; Frosh Remain At Home, Fight Andover

After defeating Boston College and Union College, the varsity finding team left for New York this morning to compete against St. John's University and Columbia University with high hopes of keeping their slate clean. The forecast demands St. John's this afternoon.

A handicap meet will be held a week from tomorrow at the same place, same time.
