Nature

(Continued from Page 1)

always kept his head down looking at the ground. One day a professor sent Mike down to the basement on an errand. Mike moved along in his customary manner but while passing through a classroom he noticed a pair of legs and when he looked up there was a nude model posing. Mike picked up his legs and moved fast. He got back to the professor and breathlessly exclaimed, "Gosh darn! there's a woman to the professor and breathlessly ex-

Some time later one of the nude models took sick. The professor was in a jam. There was a 'fire' during the next day and no model. He asked Mike if he could pose. Now Mike was hesitant but Mike's wife Marguerita was not and Mike needed money. Mike sacrificed modesty for Marguerita—she passed. For two hours he stood and posed; his face was as red as a beet and not once did he dare lift his head and look at the students before him.

The men and girls liked Mike as well as they wanted him to pose again but Mike had done his duty; he could stand no more. Three months later Marguerita died. The students took up a collection for Mike and when they gave the money to him there was a smile on his face but tears in his eyes. Mike went west after that.

If he ever sees this the boys, professors and his comrade janitors want to tell them what they gave the money to him was a smile on his face but tears in his eyes. Mike went west after that.

The Chemical Society will hold its meeting tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock in the Eastern Lecture Hall. The title of the lecture will be: "The Natural History of the Fossil Triticale". The competition will proceed their papers.

Headquarters For The New "Argus" Candid Camera

Hudson Will Deliver
Lecture On Isomerism

A.S.U. (Continued from Page 1)

law was in itself harmless but it said that there was no compelling reason to have absolute freedom of speech. He claimed that the standing professor who ex-

"lution in Education," he added, since it weakened the faith in the establishment of the Sudbury system. "If a teacher should have absolute freedom to present facts,

You hear somebody compliment Chesterfields at a party. Another time, the grocer tells you it's a darn good cigarette. Or you see a group of men on a street corner, most of 'em smoking Chesterfields. Because they have what smokers like, Chesterfields are humming right along...

Copyright 1937, Lesser & Morris Tobacco Co.

Page Four