Five Trackmen Go To I.C.-A Games

Guerke, Sahd, Cooper, Kites and Hamilton Picked;
Games Tomorrow

In fine condition and with high hopes, Technology's five track stars leave for New York today to compete against the country's best in the I. C. A. A. A. games which take place in the famed Madison Square Garden tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The men making the trip are Capt. Henry Guerke, outstanding Tech trackster; Nester Sahd, reliable Cohens; Gene Cooper, John Hamilton, and Luther Stone. Guerke, who is the New England mile champion and who has unofficially broken the Tech 1000 yard record several times in the last few months will compete in the two mile race; Sahd, in the mile, 880 and 440 yard events; Kites, in the 440 yard, 220 yard and 100 yard; Stone, in the 100 yard. Each man has shown his ability to compete with the best in the country. Their chances are excellent.

 teaser event. He will meet tough competition in Buffett of Harvard and Woodland of Yale, winner of the event last year. Sahd and Cooper, both members of the one mile relay team, one of the strongest teams in the history of Tech, will run in the 600 yards and one mile races respectively.

Rifle Team to Meet Coast Guard, Yale

Leaving early tomorrow morning, the Vanity rifle team travels to New London to shoot in a triangular match against the Coast Guard and Yale teams.

The team going to New London will consist of captains David S. Whitaker, '37, manager Francis T. Cough, '36, Thomas W. Millican, '37, Charles Nash, '38, Edward C. Peterson, '37, Robert W. Pratt, '38, A. K. Slaves, '39, and Gordon L. Fraize, '38. Because the range will not be open until Wednesday night, putting added spirit in them besides giving them many helpful hints. Levis, who was in the individual foils, a feat that had been unofficially broken the Tech 1000 yard record several times in the last few months will compete in the two mile race; Sahd, in the mile, 880 and 440 yard events; Kites, in the 440 yard, 220 yard and 100 yard; Stone, in the 100 yard. Each man has shown his ability to compete with the best in the country. Their chances are excellent.

Today is the last day of shooting in the petal match with Vermont.

Because the range will not be open until Wednesday night, putting added spirit in them besides giving them many helpful hints. Levis, who was in the individual foils, a feat that had been unofficially broken the Tech 1000 yard record several times in the last few months will compete in the two mile race; Sahd, in the mile, 880 and 440 yard events; Kites, in the 440 yard, 220 yard and 100 yard; Stone, in the 100 yard. Each man has shown his ability to compete with the best in the country. Their chances are excellent.