WALLACE, WINGARD, FOSTER WIN
McElvaney And Johns Elected By Seniors

Kolb, Muter Wife, Win Junior Inst. Com. Positions

Election Brings Out Record Number Of Voters

John J. Wallace, ’38, William E. Wingard, ’38, and Robert F. Foster, ’38, were elected presidents of their respective classes in the elections Wednesday it was announced at the Metropolitan Club at the college Wednesday evening.

At the same time David E. McElvaney, ’39, and Winthrop A. Jahan, ’39, were elected permanent president and secretary respectively of their class.

John P. Chalfin was elected vice-president, Institute Committee, last Saturday night at a meeting held in the Parker House, and will be re-elected for the coming year.

In the class of ’39 William F. Wingard, ’39, was elected vice-president, Institute committee. The newly elected chairmen are: Colonel Lewis B. S. papers, junior engineering, and Paul W. Scharf, ’39, assistant vice-president, and Robert D. Lights, ’39, vice-president.

Purnell Conference

The text of the petition is as follows:

As students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, we protest against the policy of the Institute Committee in accepting the invitation to the Senior Ball at the Hotel Statler on May 11.

We request that the Senate take such action as shall be necessary to prevent the Senior Ball from being held at the Hotel Statler.

The petition is signed by: Gordon A. Bailey, ’38; William F. Wingard, ’38; Robert F. Foster, ’38; Richard B. S. papers, junior electrical engineering; Lewis H. K. Coombs, Walcott; Roy W. J. Jones, ’38; the Parker House, and will be re-elected for the coming year.

In the class of ’39 William F. Wingard, ’39, was elected vice-president, Institute committee. The newly elected chairmen are: Colonel Lewis B. S. papers, junior engineering, and Paul W. Scharf, ’39, assistant vice-president, and Robert D. Lights, ’39, vice-president.

Purnell Conference

The text of the petition is as follows:

As students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, we protest against the policy of the Institute Committee in accepting the invitation to the Senior Ball at the Hotel Statler on May 11.

We request that the Senate take such action as shall be necessary to prevent the Senior Ball from being held at the Hotel Statler.

The petition is signed by: Gordon A. Bailey, ’38; William F. Wingard, ’38; Robert F. Foster, ’38; Richard B. S. papers, junior electrical engineering; Lewis H. K. Coombs, Walcott; Roy W. J. Jones, ’38; the Parker House, and will be re-elected for the coming year.

In the class of ’39 William F. Wingard, ’39, was elected vice-president, Institute committee. The newly elected chairmen are: Colonel Lewis B. S. papers, junior engineering, and Paul W. Scharf, ’39, assistant vice-president, and Robert D. Lights, ’39, vice-president.

Purnell Conference

The text of the petition is as follows:

As students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, we protest against the policy of the Institute Committee in accepting the invitation to the Senior Ball at the Hotel Statler on May 11.

We request that the Senate take such action as shall be necessary to prevent the Senior Ball from being held at the Hotel Statler.

The petition is signed by: Gordon A. Bailey, ’38; William F. Wingard, ’38; Robert F. Foster, ’38; Richard B. S. papers, junior electrical engineering; Lewis H. K. Coombs, Walcott; Roy W. J. Jones, ’38; the Parker House, and will be re-elected for the coming year.

In the class of ’39 William F. Wingard, ’39, was elected vice-president, Institute committee. The newly elected chairmen are: Colonel Lewis B. S. papers, junior engineering, and Paul W. Scharf, ’39, assistant vice-president, and Robert D. Lights, ’39, vice-president.

Purnell Conference

The text of the petition is as follows:

As students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, we protest against the policy of the Institute Committee in accepting the invitation to the Senior Ball at the Hotel Statler on May 11.

We request that the Senate take such action as shall be necessary to prevent the Senior Ball from being held at the Hotel Statler.

The petition is signed by: Gordon A. Bailey, ’38; William F. Wingard, ’38; Robert F. Foster, ’38; Richard B. S. papers, junior electrical engineering; Lewis H. K. Coombs, Walcott; Roy W. J. Jones, ’38; the Parker House, and will be re-elected for the coming year.

In the class of ’39 William F. Wingard, ’39, was elected vice-president, Institute committee. The newly elected chairmen are: Colonel Lewis B. S. papers, junior engineering, and Paul W. Scharf, ’39, assistant vice-president, and Robert D. Lights, ’39, vice-president.