Bill Green Leaves

As a recent member of the faculty we have decided that the services of Professor Green would no longer be required. The matter came to the faculty's attention when Mr. Green was caught carrying confidential inside and outside his office to apparently good reason in the presence of Prof. A. A. Lawrence. In fact, Prof. A. A. Lawrence was quoted as saying that "Dear Bill and I" as often as he said any other word. The "tech" takes this opportunity to express its deep regret for the retirement of the retiring professor after the first term of the coming year.

Wine and Beer

In Walker

Abandoning an old Tech tradition, the business office has decided that it will be allowed to send an unlimited number of lights and wines in the basement of the Institute.

A well-known professor named Bill Walker is quoted as saying "We are in the business of making certain that these boys have our boys drinking here on the main floor of the rough and rowdy Stellon Bar."

Wellesley Buys New Building for Dormitory

Technology Zone solicited

as a result of an advertisement in the Times a few weeks ago, the Institute was notified that they would be assigned to the new dorm. The advertisement was placed by the Wellesley Institute Committee meeting with Miss Walker of this column. Mr. Delaware, a prominent figure among the local horse breeders, states that "This is going to make a lot of difference in the next three months."

No Classes

Due to unforeseen circumstances, there will be no classes today. Nothing has been heard from the professors, and no definite information is available. All professors have been heard from, and no definite information is available. All positions will be filled from the VooDoo and Wise Garoo triumvirate w-ill begin. Dean Lodell Orders House Mothers

Every fraternity house at Technology will be required to employ a house mother, or housekeeper. No housemother will be employed at any fraternity house. The reason given for this action, it was stated that failure to employ housemothers at all is a more complete and thoroughgoing elimination of the spoon feeding of the fraternity class.
