Valentine Announced as Crew Coach

Cedric Valentine

Succeeds Haines In Coaching Crew

Valentine Former Tech Graduate

Cedric Valentine, '28, Technology alumnus and head of the Western Boat Works, has been appointed by the Alumni Advisory Council on Athletics to succeed William H. T. Kingsland as head coach of Tech crews for the coming year, according to an announcement made by Ralph T. Jope, Secretary of the Council. Patrick Manning will continue in his capacity as freshman coach.

Valentine has been identified with Tech rowing for a number of years both as an undergraduate and as a coach. In 1925, he stroked the Technology varsity crew, then Tech's first intercollegiate victory. The following year Valentine was number two, and in 1926 he stroked the undefeated 150 pound varsity crew.

As an undergraduate at Technology, Valentine studied mechanical engineering. In addition to his rowing activities, he was a member of the Chi Phi fraternity, Beaver Club, Theta Chi Engineering Fraternity, and the Varsity Club which is made up of men who have earned the straight "T," the highest athletic award at Tech.

Camp Frost Will Sail Institute Dinghies

Nautical Association Announces Shores Classes Tuesday

Freshmen will have an opportunity to sail in the Institute dinghies this weekend for at least one of the boats will be taken along, sailing master Jack Woods hopes to take two dinghies and several experienced men will be on hand to handle them.

During the past week a class of one hundred and thirty six freshmen attended the last summer shore school conducted by sailing master Jack Woods. Thirty six of the entering men have been given advanced standing because of previous experience in handling boats. By September 21, 24 students and 44 staff members had joined the club. Since the commencement of the last shore school, 100 new members were enrolled.

Shore school for beginners will start next Tuesday afternoon. Registered courses will be held from 4 to 5:30 and from 5 to 6:30. The courses covering all the requirements for crew will probably take two weeks. In addition, shore school for helmsmen wishing to become petty skippers will start in two or three weeks.

Goldie Returns As The Coach Of Soccer Team

Coach Malcolm Goldie

Will return to Tech's soccer team for the first time in his professional career. Goldie's first practice will be held on the opening day of school. The season's Amber ten days later will mark the commencement of the season. This game and another with West Point are the only two out of a schedule of seven games, to be played at the home field. Captain of this year's team will be Joe M. Gillmore, who also holds the presidency of the M.I.A.A.
