Lewters, White Talk At First Meeting Of Tech A.I.C.E. Branch

Professional Men's Obligation To Society Is Subject At Lecture

Professor Warren K. Lewis was the principal speaker at this first lecture of the year for the newly organized organization of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers, which is under the auspices of the society. The meeting was held in the North Hall of the Institute.

Professor Lewis introduced Professor Wallace G. Whitman, Professor Whitman explained the fact that the continued operation of the T. A. C. E. was possible because of the support of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers. Professor W. H. D. Nichols, the editor of the T. A. C. E., was also present.

The meeting was well attended, and the group is looking forward to a successful year.
