To Revive Football
As an amendment to the Walter Memorial Committee constitution to revive the gridiron constitution, requiring a written excuse for each absence. The division of the activities of the school into Class A, those with representation on the Institute Committee, and Class B groups was approved. Class A activities must submit monthly financial reports to the Budget Committee; Class B activities, reports as requested.

RADIO AMATEURS
William E. Compton, chairman; Dr. Earl F. Chenery, secretary; Colonel Robert C. Eddy of the Institute, Executive Secretary.

Other members of the committee include Professor Horace Wiener, Professor Dugald C. Jackson, and Major A. D. Fiskin of the Institute.

Three Fraternities win in Second Round of Football
Sigma Chi, Phi Kappa Sigma, and Delta Kappa Epsilon have all won their second game in the interfraternity touch football tournament and thus enter the quarter-finals. The second round have all been played, but the scores have not yet been reported.

CAN PEOPLE REALLY TELL THE DIFFERENCE IN CAMEL'S COSTIEST TOBACCO?
The Best Answer is This...
Camels are the Largest American Cigarette in the World.

If you are not a Camel smoker, perhaps you too, would enjoy a cigarette with a richer, cooler taste. Try one. To Camel Smokers. Put them to the second test —smoke them steadily. You’ll realize how true it is that there is no substitution for better tobacco.

MRS. JOHN W. HUBBELLER, H. H. society announcer: "I promise Camelites, I smoke as many as I can — they don’t get on my nerves."

MRS. VICTOR RAY, home maker: "Believe me, I appreciate how mild Camels are made. I can’t smoke any ‘cigarette after-meal.’"

JOANNA DE TUSCANI, dancing champion: "I enjoy smoking Camels. I don’t need as much as I used to with Camels. They never give me a nagged nervous."

JOE VOLLER, grade student: "The long hours of concentrating — over any other time when I feel tired— I get a mighty welcome lift to energy with a Camel."

EVELYN CRANDLER, figure skater: "When we are about to do an important performance, we need for our concentration aid. They help to keep my digestion in order."

GENE SARAZEN, golf champion: "I enjoy smoking Camels. I smoke hundreds of Camels a week."

MRS. VICTOR RAY, home maker: "Believe me, I appreciate how mild Camels are made. I can’t smoke any ‘cigarette after-meal.’"

IRENE SHERWOOD, shop girl: "Noonsmoke of my business times. That’s why for days I’ve been smoking Camels means so much to me."
