Memorah Society Loses Institute Committee Recognition For Liquor

Dance Leaders To Be Protected

Menorah Society Loses Institute

Because the Menorah Society had held a function in Walker Memorial without the proper authorization from the Walker Memorial Committee, the latter committee decided to withdraw recognition of the society until, from the Walker Memorial Committee, a complete list of activities of the Menorah Society shall have been furnished the committee. The society has been reinstated, the committee's action having been taken because the Menorah Society still possesses a large variety of items ranging from books to musical instruments. The society will furnish the music at the Dormitory Dance Committee function in conjunction with the Dancing Days Committee.

Dorm Dinner Dance Changes Orchestra

Ray Stewartson Signed to Play Increased Ticket Sales

Ray Stewartson and his orchestra will furnish the music at the Dorm Dinner Dance on Friday, Feb. 10, in the Great Hall. The ticket sales for the eight annual sales for the annual tickets led the committee to engage a new orchestra, according to a statement made by Dr. Ernst A. Hauser, former chairman of the Dramashop.

Defending the action taken by the committee, he said that the regulation of business and industry, (Continued on page 2)
