Top Flight Orchestra Will Play At Hotel Statler On March 4 For Junior Prom

Band Comes Straight From Comodore In New York

Junior Poll Rates Band First

Although Tommy Dorsey is now the best known trumpeter in the country, his father gave him intensive musical training that left him with the ability to play the brass section before the trombone was selected as Tommy’s specialty. Once this selection was made, Dorsey immediately added to his repertoire of China, which he practiced virtuosity. After joining Zorn Gold, the band continued to be played, and Tommy Dorsey signed up with the California Ramblers. He was then signed by Louis and Paul Whiteman before he took over his older brother Jimmy Dorsey’s place in the band. Tommy Dorsey’s Vocalist

Dorm Dinner Dance To Be Held Friday

Music Is By Ray Stewartson, This May Be Bought In Main Lobby

With all but a few tables sold out, the Dormitory Dance Committee announced that tickets that will be put on sale this week will be reissued.

Every day of this week from ten minutes after eight until the Main Lobby. They can be obtained for two dollars plus the entrance for dormitory residents such as at the League of Nations, which those who have no options, but who wish to ensure the remaining doors can be so done by contacting Franklin S. Averitt, 98, in the dormitories.

The event, taking place on Friday, February 11, will start with dinner promptly at 7:30. After dinner there will be a program presented in front of nine o’clock. Prof. Robert E. Rogers will be toastmaster, with Prof. Albert E. Ahearn as principal speaker and Dr. Karl T. Compton saying a few words.

After the speeches there is to be an intermission until 10:30, followed by dancing until 3. At 2:30 breakfast (Continued on page 2)

Dorm Dance

Condolence Camera Shots Desired

By Board Of 1938 Technique

Informal camera shots are desired for the forthcoming edition of the yearbook, Technique anonymous. Suggested subjects are Freshman Camp, Field Day, Gymnastics, athletics, dormitory and fraternity life, the architectural building, and the new train. Any students having, or caring to take, such pictures are urged to submit them to Technique. The negatives may be left in a box in the information office, or placed in Institute mail boxes—properly addressed.

“Don’t Strangle Your Partner” First Dance Etiquette Rule, Says Expert

“Don’t strangle your partner,” is the first of the etiquette rules given by the Dorm Dance Committee. Also given are:

1. Condolence Camera Shots Desired

2. Condolence Camera Shots Desired

3. Condolence Camera Shots Desired

4. Condolence Camera Shots Desired

5. Condolence Camera Shots Desired

6. Condolence Camera Shots Desired

The rules are: “Don’t strangle your partner” and “Don’t strangle your partner.” The first rule of dance etiquette, according to Thomas E. Parson, widely known as the “King of Dance,” is that the partner must not be too tight. The second rule is that the partner must not be too loose. The third rule is that the partner must not be too fast. The fourth rule is that the partner must not be too slow. The fifth rule is that the partner must not be too silent. The sixth rule is that the partner must not be too talkative. The last rule is that the partner must not be too angry. The second rule is that the partner must not be too sad. The third rule is that the partner must not be too happy. The fourth rule is that the partner must not be too jealous. The fifth rule is that the partner must not be too possessive. The sixth rule is that the partner must not be tooicate.