The Institute grant-aid-grantees go abroad this Saturday to meet the Amherst team in the new $9,000,000 Amherst Gym. This meet will come nearer year for year in intercollegiate football, since the Institute is one of the top teams in the country. Coach Ricks will send out his top four men to meet the Amherst team, and it is expected that the November 23, 1937, meeting is the last time the two teams will meet.

Two of the four men who ran last Saturday will be available for tomorrow's meet. T. H. Hall and R. Dwyer will be out, and S. H. H. Hall, R. B. Dwyer, and R. H. B. Dwyer will be in.

The first day of practice will begin tomorrow at five o'clock in the afternoon. The Amherst Institute hopes to have the team ready for the big game this Saturday.

Reaver Gunman Lead New England League

Officials from the National Rifle Association in Washington show that the Technology rifle team is leading the New England Interscholastic League in the present season.

The previous week, the team defeated the University of Vermont, 1327 to 1309. The victory was won by four out of six shooters. The team members are H. C. Beaver, T. H. Hall, R. Dwyer, and R. H. B. Dwyer.

In the next two weeks, the team will meet other New England teams in the league.

Undergraduate Notes

The freshman crew will practice today at five o'clock in the afternoon. The practice will be held at the Whittemore boathouse, and the crew will be out in their first practice.
