Chelsea High Tops

Quincy Schoolboys Bow Before Sophomores in Annual Tourney

The Thirteenth Annual Massachusetts Interscholastic Basketball Tourney was held at the Hangar Gym of the Tech Saturday afternoon. The winning team was the Central High School, four times winners of the tourney, defeated Quincy by a 14-to-16 score. The winning team was composed of the students of the school, since Coach McCarthy, who acts as sponsor for the school basketball team, was not present for the game.

The tourney was sponsored by the school, under the direction of Coach McCarthy, who acted as referee for the match. The tourney was opened with a ceremony of the American flag, followed by the national anthem.

Emphasis was placed on the importance of the tourney, with the idea of encouraging the students to take an active part in the game. The tourney was divided into two sections, the first consisting of the schools from the eastern part of the state, and the second consisting of the schools from the western part of the state.

Chelsea, Medford, Newburyport, and Lynn were the schools that participated in the first section, while the second section consisted of the schools from the western part of the state, including Boston, Cambridge, and Newburyport.

The tourney was won by the Chelsea High School, who defeated the Medford High School by a score of 14 to 16. The team was composed of the students of the school, who were under the guidance of their coach, Coach McCarthy.

The tourney was held in the Tech gymnasium, and was attended by a large crowd of students and faculty members. The tourney was a success, and the students were unanimous in their approval of the tourney as a whole.