Compton To Give Talk Over Radio For Open House

Physics Department Announces Von De Graaf Generator To Be On Display

The Club Will Also Appear With Kilgore's "Ole" Held With "Ole"

Spectroscopy Laboratory Plans Big Exhibit Featuring Spectra Machine

As part of the Institute's effort to open its Open House, President Saul C. Compton is to speak on a national budgeting the evening of April 19, 6 to 8. His subject will be "Students Educate Themselves About Science".

Glee Club Shares Program

The Department of Physics also releases its weekly program for April 25, 5:15 to 10:15. Mr. von De Graaf generator, G., from the Institute's laboratories; Prof. Wilmer H. Hagen, '40, from the Debating Society; and Prof. G. W. Gibson, '43, from the Institute's library, will participate in the program.

Permanent Pacifistic Plans Will Be Discussed For the Cause of Peace

On Tuesday, April 24, 1:00 to 3:00, the Student Peace Association will hold its first meeting in the Main Building. The meeting will be open to all students and all persons interested in the establishment of a permanent pacifistic plan for the cause of peace. The meeting will be held in the Main Building, Room 110. Attendees are invited to bring their suggestions and ideas for the establishment of a permanent pacifistic plan for the cause of peace.

Institute To Race For Morris Trophy On Charles Basin

The First Intercollegiate Dinghy Regatta Of Year On April 24, 21

Seven Other Crews Expected To Play At Morris Dance

Eight other schools in an attempt to pit its sailing prowess against the Crew of Brown, Smith, Wellesley, Amherst, and Haverford will be represented at tomorrow's Charles River sailing regatta, which will be held in conjunction with the Charles River sailing regatta.

Spectra Machine Installed In the Main Building

The Spectra Machine, which was purchased last year, has been installed in the Main Building, Room 110. The machine is used for the study of light and has been used in many experimental studies.

Science and Math for Open House

The Department of Science and Math is planning to open its Science and Math displays for Open House. The displays will be open from 1:00 to 3:00, and will be located in the Main Building, Room 110.

Senior Class Nominations

The Senior Class Nominations Committee is now accepting nominations for the Senior Class President. Nominees must be nominated by at least five members of the Senior Class. Nominations are due by April 25.

Physical Science for Open House

The Department of Physical Science is planning to open its Physical Science displays for Open House. The displays will be open from 1:00 to 3:00, and will be located in the Main Building, Room 110.

Student Peace Association

The Student Peace Association is planning to open its Student Peace Association displays for Open House. The displays will be open from 1:00 to 3:00, and will be located in the Main Building, Room 110.