FRIDAY, APRIL 15
6:30 P. M.—Biological Department Dinner—Faculty Dining Room.

SATURDAY, APRIL 16
12:30 P. M.—Foundry Conference Luncheon—North Hall.

SUNDAY, APRIL 17
5:00 P. M.—St. John’s Eucharist Service—Clarke Hill Chapel.
10:00 A. M.—Chinese Students Club basketball—Hangar Gymnasium.
12:30 P. M.—Foundry Conference Luncheon—North Hall.

TUESDAY, APRIL 19
1:00 P. M.—Varsity Golf with Brown at Providence.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20
1:00 P. M.—Varsity Lacrosse with Stevens—Cooip Field.

Friday, April 15, 1938

Dr. Slater
(Continued from page 1)
give both a qualitative and quantitative analysis of the work under question. As a result of his work, he now has a good understanding of the problem.

Community Reception Committee

A china tea party was held at the Residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Ho-rris, whose son is a Bowdoin student, in order to welcome the new students.

The First Church of Christ, Scientist

WINSTON, MA., April 13.—The Priscilla Wright Memorial Banquet was held at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in this city on Wednesday evening.

Miss Priscilla Wright was a member and leader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, for several years until 1919, when she went to New York City to study, and then later she returned to Boston.

The banquet was in honor of Miss Wright and was attended by nineteen church members and a number of friends.

B Y W A L D   A N D   B R I N G X  A N D   K N O P F

HAMBURG COLLEGE

HAMBURG, GERMANY

Two students from the United States are now attending Hamburg College. They are Mrs. Grace S. and Miss Ruth W. Brown, who are junior and senior respectively. The college is a private institution and is composed of three departments, the liberal arts,
the theological, and the seminary.

The students are doing their work in good spirit and are finding the college quite interesting. They are becoming very accustomed to the German language and are finding it quite easy to understand.

The college is well equipped with modern libraries and laboratories
and is situated in a charming
sort of a setting.

HAMBURG COLLEGE

HAMBURG, GERMANY

Two United States students are now attending Hamburg College. They are Mrs. Grace S. and Miss Ruth W. Brown, who are juniors, respectively. The college is a private institution and is composed of three departments, the liberal arts,
the theological, and the seminary.

The students are doing their work in good spirit and are finding the college quite interesting. They are becoming very accustomed to the German language and
are finding it quite easy to understand.

The college is well equipped with
modern libraries and laboratories
and is situated in a charming
sort of a setting.