DEATH MAKES NO CHOICE

POSThumous gifts of his father, we want to present with the rest of the Institute in expressing to President Compton and his family our appreciation of the many kindnesses that we could feel of him who may look back upon our lives and see as many successes, as many true friendships, and such personal satisfaction in having truly inspired in even contemplating such a life of service to man through a continuous line of points to children. The flame that started burning somewhere is not extinguished although his 100th may have flashed into eternity.

We are sorry for those who have lost a true friend and companion, but realize that such associations do not end with life on earth.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

It has been suggested that a statement by me in regard to the Chinese Students Association of Greater Boston, which appeared in the Student Omnibus, is false. I assure the Chinese Student Association of Greater Boston that the Institute in its concern for the safety of the students who are away from home will cooperate fully in any investigation that may be made by the authorities concerned.

The Chinese Student Association of Greater Boston is naturally concerned about the safety of its members, and is anxious to make sure that they are safe and sound. The Institute, as a responsible institution, is also concerned about the safety and well-being of its students, and will do everything in its power to ensure their safety.

Safety is of utmost importance, and the Institute is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all its students. We are confident that the Chinese Student Association of Greater Boston will also take all necessary precautions to ensure the safety of its members.

The Chinese Student Association of Greater Boston is an important part of the Institute community, and we value their contributions and support. We are committed to working together to ensure the safety and well-being of all our students.

Thank you for your understanding and for the opportunity to clarify this matter.
