Crew Races At Princeton Saturday

Compton ‘Cup’ Awaits Winner At Lake Carnegie

This Year’s Contest Will Be Swifter Than Ever

Tech Crew Given Small Chance Against Princeton And Yale

Coach Cobbs Valentine left Princeton Station at ten o’clock last night with his third crew, en route to Lake Carnegie. The boy’s hope for a win is slight, but Technology’s chances are better than they have been since last year. Valentine believes Tech’s crew will come in for a good position in the race, but he is not optimistic about a first place finish. Princeton and Yale are expected to come in first and second, respectively.
