As Registrations Slacken

Registration at closing time last year was 2,763, sixteen more than this year. From unofficial sources it was learned that the five dollar late registration fine will be suspended until Monday, because of the transportation break caused by Wednesday's hurricane.

A feature of the camp program is the annual baseball game between the faculty and students, with the faculty side led by pitcher, President Compton. Other games between selected men and other groups outside of the camp, and an opportunity for everyone to try his hand at any sport to his liking is provided. Trouble was encountered in obtaining army equipment due to the
