First Fall Meet Set On Saturday

Boothees Favored In Opening Game With The Bruins

Strong Squad Including Five Sophomores Chosen For Team

Red, Grey Boast Good Line

A strong seven man team will open the first set of the season tomorrow when the teams journey to Providence to encounter the Rhode Islanders.

Regulars Fit for Positions

Five sophomores are on the squad of eleven which will see the team take the field at 12 in the morning, for the game in the Providence Armory.

Squads go into battle hand in hand, but who may join the fray is left to the discretion of the manager and the decision of the Providence Armory about the suitability of the schools.

The Providence Armory late has been selected for the team.

The Providence Armory late has been selected for the team.

A strong senior team will see the team take the field at 12 in the morning, for the game in the Providence Armory.

Squads go into battle hand in hand, but who may join the fray is left to the discretion of the manager and the decision of the Providence Armory about the suitability of the schools.

The Providence Armory late has been selected for the team.

A strong senior team will see the team take the field at 12 in the morning, for the game in the Providence Armory.

Squads go into battle hand in hand, but who may join the fray is left to the discretion of the manager and the decision of the Providence Armory about the suitability of the schools.

The Providence Armory late has been selected for the team.

A strong senior team will see the team take the field at 12 in the morning, for the game in the Providence Armory.

Squads go into battle hand in hand, but who may join the fray is left to the discretion of the manager and the decision of the Providence Armory about the suitability of the schools.

The Providence Armory late has been selected for the team.

A strong senior team will see the team take the field at 12 in the morning, for the game in the Providence Armory.

Squads go into battle hand in hand, but who may join the fray is left to the discretion of the manager and the decision of the Providence Armory about the suitability of the schools.

The Providence Armory late has been selected for the team. 