The Tech Inquires

Question: Do you think that Harvard and Tech should be established in the same competition, independent of Cambridge?

Bernard F. Greeneberg, V.P., '40. "Dennis Kemp is no dummy in the minds of all public officials. He is a very kind and able public servant."

Fred Felder, President of the Tech Football Club, will be the featured speaker at a Tech meeting to be held Friday afternoon.

Freshmen Hang in Great Court

Engineering Fest Stumps Sophomores For Six Hours

Membership of the Class of '42 dem-demonstrated remarkable ingenuity.
"Swing versus sweet, for his past ensemble," said Coach Hedlund, "is an original" because of the New York Harlemites." The Coach added that the Freshmen have been "working on the problem for a month," and that they have been "prepared for the event for a long time." The Freshmen are expected to attend the dance, which will be held Wednesday night.

Over 80 members are expected to attend and the T.F.T. will have the evening's entertainment arranged to their own liking.

CLASS OF '42 BANNER

All Phases Of Play Handled
By Prospective Members

Under New Plan

"Aaron Stuck of Punkin' Eddie," a comedy in three acts, will be prepared by the Drama Department of the Tech, on Saturday, November 15.

The play, written by Robert Ford of the Tech, will be performed in the Main Building.

Integrating a new season of plays, the Tech Drama Department is actively planning a new season of performances, with the hope of establishing a new tradition.

Viewings of the production will be open to members and non-members.

Personal of Cast

The cast includes Joseph Claffey, '40; and Robert Ford, '40. The production will be directed by Edward Hauser,
'40, and will be under the general supervision of Robert Ford.

Felder To Be Present

At Clef Meeting Friday

Arturo Felder, well-known composer, will be present at the Tech's annual meeting of the Clef, which will be held Friday afternoon.

In the Clef meeting, the Clef will be held in the Main Building, at 5 P.M.

Felder is a native of Italy and has written over 200 songs, among which are "I'll Be Seeing You," "The Moderate Life," and "I'll Be Seeing You Again."

Last Minute Rally Will Be Held by Sophomores

In order to organize for the game, the class of '42 has planned a "prediction" from Oscar Haasbauer, the Sophomore football player. The prediction will be made at the last minute of the game.

The prediction will be made in front of the Tech members.

Tickets Fifty Cents

The tickets, which are priced at fifty cents per person, will be distributed to the members of the Tech. The tickets will be sold through the week, beginning at 10 A.M. on Monday.
