The Tech

Reviews and Reviews

SYRACUSE—Joshua Hemis played here in a solo in a performance that retained the same high level of excellence that had characterized them with me the past few encores. Vocalists have another opportunity to hear skating music in the weekend schedule this Friday and Saturday. Russ Powell will appear in his first performance of a new show by Edward Burlington. Two symphonies will also be given, including the People's Symphony in B major, and the third of Beethoven in E flat.

Commencement of the spring season.

The characteristics and volume of the programmes that are too large for the individual students to participate in are complete solution.

The characteristics and volume of the

programmes that are too large for the individual

students to participate in are

complete solution.

The characteristics and volume of the

programmes that are too large for the individual

students to participate in are

complete solution.

The characteristics and volume of the

programmes that are too large for the individual

students to participate in are

complete solution.