Stern, referred to by Mr. Pulev as the "Carrington Temperature'sTemperance." Immediately upon the statement of Mr. Pulev, David A. Bartlett, '39, made a vigorous protest to the chair, Mr. Williams, president of the Committee. Mr. Bartlett stated that in view of some of Mr. Pulev's arguments it was difficult to believe that the latter's motion was anything more than a joke. Mr. Pulev, however, listened to the comments made by the Committee and then withdrew his motion that the League be dissolved. He did not, however, believe that the Committee was making any good reasons for disbanding the organization. The question was then taken up for the second time by Mr. Bartlett, who moved that the League be dissolved. The question was then called again, and the motion was carried.
