MUSIC LOVERS
MEET THE CLEF

We notice that a large number of Technological students are interested in classical and modern music. The victrola on the second floor of Walker Memorial is in general use only by those who listen to music are unaware of the existence of the victrola for its members. It may also be a forerunner of more such combined meetings. The purpose is that of working the problems and personal qualities in the composition of the man. If, in the face of extremity, physical or spiritual, each of us during this past year has learned a little better how to endure, how to face death with more equanimity, has grasped a little more fully the vital need of kindliness and consideration, in other words if each of us has learned more and broadened somewhat, then we have the right to raise thanks.

TEMPERANCE UNCALLED FOR

The present flare up of a temperance movement and the wing of the party seems to appear to be not only ridiculous but uncalled for. As they plan to run a poll on the subject, we may soon know how much student opinion they have in their favor.

The attitude of the Institute in such matters has always been influenced by the idea that our students are sufficiently mature to govern their private lives as they see fit, and there is little reason for the existence of such an organization. It seems that the relative obscurity of The Clef is partly to blame for the lack of response which met a series of record concerts, open to all students last year. This year The Clef is planning a series of record concerts for its members. It may also sponsor a subscription series by an orchestra yet to be formed. The next record concert will take place on Wednesday, December 19, at 1 p.m. in room 2-178. All those interested are cordially invited.

The interest in music seems to be sufficient to guarantee the success of these concerts. Maybe we shall be fortunate enough to see another, and we sincerely hope successful attempts to bring music to a large group of Technological men.
