according to Cambridge police, the suspects gave an entirely different explanation when questioned by officers in a Walton dormitory immediately upon their arrival at the scene.

This also, according to information
plained that they had followed a man they met on a Harvard Square-Massachusetts Station bus into the dormitories. Having lost ight of him upon entering the old dorms they went into Mecklen's room, since they thought they had seen him enter there.

The two youths are suspected of being involved in one or more of four robberies committed in Techology fraternity dormitories within the past two weeks. For this reason the Boston police have taken an active interest in the case.

McHugh, age 25, gave his address as 45 Hamilton Street, Dorchester. Mc-Hugh stated that he was from 90
Whelan Street, Roxbury.

Two of the wallets stolen last Thursday morning were recovered Saturday and turned over to the police. According to the latter this was the first report they had received that morning.

Robberies

(Continued from page 8)

McHugh offered no further resistance.
A crowd of about 50 students were soon attracted by the sound of the police sirens, and gathered about the two was that they were looking for prisoners and their captors in the “Johnnie Proctor”.

Continued from pages 8 and 10 different explanations for their sight of him

According to Cambridge police, the suspects gave an entirely different explanation when questioned by officers in a Walton dormitory immediately upon their arrival at the scene.

This also, according to information
plained that they had
followed a man they met on a Harvard Square-Massachusetts Station bus
into the dormitories. Having lost
ight of him upon entering the old
dorms they went into Mecklen's
room, since they thought they had
seen him enter there.

The two youths are suspected of
being involved in one or more of
four robberies committed in Tech-
ology fraternity dormitories
within the past two weeks. For this reason the Boston police have taken
an active interest in the case.

McHugh, age 25, gave his address as
45 Hamilton Street, Dorchester. Mc-
Hugh stated that he was from 90
Whelan Street, Roxbury.

Two of the wallets stolen last Thursday morning were recovered Saturday
and turned over to the police. According to the latter this was the first
report they had received that morning.

Robin (Continued from page 8)

McHugh offered no further resistance.
A crowd of about 50 students were
soon attracted by the sound of the
police sirens, and gathered about the work

Robberies

(Continued from page 8)

McHugh offered no further resistance.
A crowd of about 50 students were
soon attracted by the sound of the
police sirens, and gathered about the
two was that they were looking for
prisoners and their captors in the “Johnnie Proctor”.

Continued from pages 8 and 10 different explanations for their
sight of him

According to Cambridge police, the
suspects gave an entirely different explanation when questioned by officers
in a Walton dormitory immediately
upon their arrival at the scene.

This also, according to information
plained that they had
followed a man they met on a Harvard Square-Massachusetts Station bus
into the dormitories. Having lost
ight of him upon entering the old
dorms they went into Mecklen's
room, since they thought they had
seen him enter there.

The two youths are suspected of
being involved in one or more of
four robberies committed in Tech-
ology fraternity dormitories
within the past two weeks. For this reason the Boston police have taken
an active interest in the case.

McHugh, age 25, gave his address as
45 Hamilton Street, Dorchester. Mc-
Hugh stated that he was from 90
Whelan Street, Roxbury.

Two of the wallets stolen last Thursday morning were recovered Saturday
and turned over to the police. According to the latter this was the first
report they had received that morning.

JOIN ALL M.I.T. at the KEYHOLE of the Copley Square Hotel Huntington Ave. at Boylston St.
SMART DINNER and SUPPER DANCING HARRY DE ANGELES and HIS MUSIC NEVER A COVER OR MINIMUM except $1 Minimum Friday & Saturday

All through the year and all around the clock Chesterfield's milder better taste gives millions MORE PLEASURE

At Christmas time send these pleasure-giving cartons of Chesterfields—packaged in gay holiday colors—welcomed by smokers everywhere.

You'll find Chesterfield's a better cigarette because of what they give you—more smoking pleasure than any cigarette you ever tried—the right combination of mild ripe home-grown and aromatic Turkish tobaccos rolled in pure cigarette paper.