The Tech To Make
Easyl up Fees;
Schorer Wins Two Events

With a score of 253, the Tech women's swimming team won its first event in five years when it beat Brown University in the University Pool last Wednesday night. Bill Schorer, M.I.T. freshmen record holder for the Tech men's team in a distance of 1:29.39, won the 300-yard medley relay, with a time of 2:41.8. Schorer equalled the Tech medley record which had been held since last December in the meet with Amherst.

Dave Howard, Tech diver, was the diving events with the high score of 90 out of a possible 100.

The Tech swimming team looks forward to a very successful season because of the cooperation of the swimming facilities.

Bundle Of Old Clothes Is Part Of Admission Price

Old clothes will be worth good, hard cash, each pound, when the costume box, or at least a sizable part of it, goes to the Salvation Army. - This is the result of a suggestion in "Waltz Mornin'," the untitled masquerade at Eel Friday night in Room 4-107 under the auspices of the American Student Union.

This picture dramatically illustrates the gravity of the situation and the problem of old, and useless clothing.

An audience of about 150 was shown the results of the Costume Box of '39 of the Tech's Christian Association. The Tech will soon begin their annual "Staff Changing" in the Lindgren Library, room 3-107.

"Students will be entertained in a handsomely decorated annual "Staff Changing" by THE TECH, the student publication of the University of Massachusetts. The Tech will present a program of activities, entertainment, and music.
